Athlete Expectations

- Attend all training sessions, games and carnivals unless prior approval has been given by the ADO.
- A 'No Train-No Play' policy or reduced court time may be implemented if non attendance at training. This is at the discretion of the team coach and ADO.
- Arrive on time, ready to train, in uniform and a full drink bottle.
- Follow coach instructions, bringing a positive attitude and supporting all FNA members whether on the court or on the bench.
- Abide by all FNA policies and Player Code of Conduct.

Parent Expectations

- Be your netballer's biggest fan, cheering effort, courage, teamwork and improvement.
- Report all athlete injuries/sickness to the ADO.
- Do not coach from the sideline - instruction should come from the appointed coaches.
- Do not enter/interrupt team huddles or coach-athlete conversations, unless there is a genuine welfare concern.
- Model calm, respectful behaviour, especially when umpiring decisions or team selections are made.
- Abide by FNA policies and the Parent/Guardian Code of Conduct.
